

Ali meets The Jonas Brothers!

Ali is a huge fan of the Jonas Brothers, especially Joe. Getting a chance to actually meet them was an amazing experience, writes the family. Ali, a 16-year-old diagnosed with cystic fibrosis, flew to California in July in great anticipation of meeting her favorite pop rock boy band. Meeting them and attending their concert was an unforgettable experience for the family. In the photo, Ali and her friend, smiling from ear to ear, pose with the Jonas Brothers.

An Ancestral Visit

Dear Children's Wish,

I would like to thank you very much for fulfilling my wish to go on a trip to England. I want you to know that knowing this wish would come true got me through some of the toughest days of my chemo therapy treatment. The trip was amazing; so much so that after seeing London, I can't decide if I'd rather live here or there. I truly appreciate the great work that you all do to help make a difficult time better. I am forever grateful.

Jenna

Jenna was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia in 2007. After aggressive treatment she is now in the maintenance stage. She has always wanted to travel to Europe as most of her ancestors are from Ireland and England.
